

Grand Opening

11.15.09

Eight new Metro Rail stations

DOWNTOWN TO EAST LOS ANGELES

EDWARD R. ROYBAL METRO GOLD LINE EASTSIDE EXTENSION LA EXTENSION HACIA EL ESTE DE LA LINEA DE ORO DE METRO, EDWARD R. ROYBAL UNION STATION LITTLE TOKYO/ARTS DISTRICT PICO/ALISO MARIACHI PLAZA SOTO INDIANA MARAVILLA EAST LA CIVIC CENTER ATLANTIC

You're Invited to Ride Free!*

Sunday, November 15, 2009

All aboard! Join us as we celebrate the opening of the Edward R. Roybal Metro Gold Line Eastside Extension. There'll be music, entertainment and family fun at four stations, plus free rides on the entire line from Pasadena to East LA.

Festivities at four stations, gam to 5pm:

East LA Civic Center Station

Enjoy live performances of Chicano rock, a spectacular Farmer's Market plus tasty food booths, local artisans and special exhibits from the County Bike Coalition and Metro Bike programs.

Mariachi Plaza Station

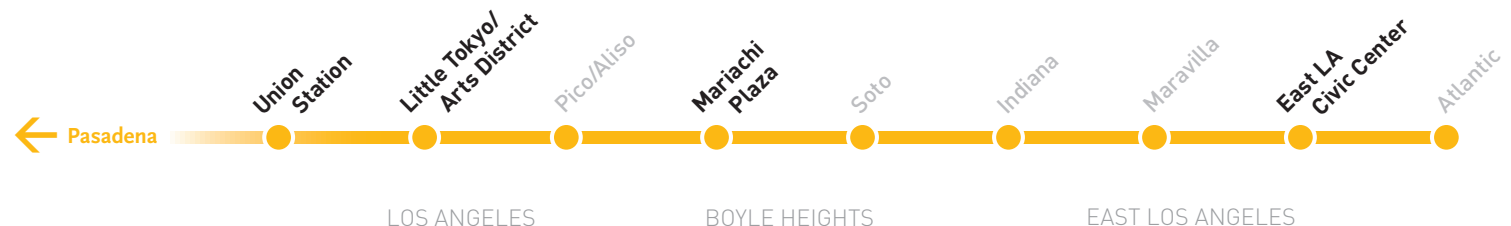

Expect the joy of live Mariachi music to fill your senses, as the celebration continues with a special Block Party.

Little Tokyo/Arts District Station

Take your place on stage with live karaoke, then enjoy the cuisine of the area along with special family activities.

Union Station

Look for a display from Madame Tussauds Hollywood, as well as bands, guitarists, food booths and a special visit from Santa.

Metro®

*Free fare on Metro Gold Line only, November 15, 2009 only, from start of service to close of service. Regular fares apply on all other Metro Rail, Metro Rapid and Metro Local lines. Entertainment schedule subject to change.