

METRO PASS PROGRAMS

People are fond of saying that driving a car in Southern California is a necessity because there is no public transportation. In fact, over the last 18 years Metro has created a network of extensive transit service. With 191 bus routes, 18,500 bus stops, 70 miles of light rail 17.4 mile subway. Public transportation is the smart way to lessen traffic congestion and increase AVR.

Metro has designed several bus pass programs exclusively for businesses. For Information on Metro's pass programs, call 213-922-2811.

Metro Mail – A monthly pass-by-mail program.

Annual Transit Access Pass, A-TAP – A convenient regular priced annual photo ID pass

Business Transit Access Pass, B-TAP – Group rate pricing, annual photo ID pass

The A-TAP and B-TAP enjoy the following benefits:

- Exclusively for employers
- Pass can be deactivated if needed
- Passes are good on Metro buses and rail (Blueline, Greenline, Orangeline, Goldline & Redline) 7 days a week. Does not include Metrolink or other transit agencies at this time
- Perfect low-cost, high value addition to your benefit's package
 - Helps attract and retain quality employees
- Qualifies as a Commuter Tax Benefit - IRS Code 132 (f)
 - Tax free and pre-tax
 - Payroll tax savings
- Helps reduce parking demand and expense
- Employees report to work on time
 - With less driving stress, employees are more productive
- Provides commute options
 - Work and leisure
- Greatly reduces commute costs
 - Saves thousands on vehicle expenses
- Convenient
 - No need to purchase monthly passes each month
- Employers can request a report on usage