About the Project

- > Metro is partnering with the BNSF Railway, the City of Santa Fe Springs, California High-Speed Rail Authority (CHSRA), and Caltrans' Division of Rail and Mass Transportation (DRMT) to construct a bridge to separate the Rosecrans Ave and Marquardt Ave intersection from the existing diagonal at-grade crossing of the BNSF railway.
- > This proposed project will substantially enhance the safety and traffic flow, including truck and vehicular circulation, on the surface streets.
- > Construction is ongoing through Summer of 2025.
- > Contractor: Flatiron Construction
