Important Updates

In response to what we've heard from Task Force and CLC members, we've decided to shift tonight's September 11th Combined Task Force and CLC Meeting to a virtual format. To maximize the benefit of our time together, the project team will have an in-depth discussion on prioritization and other topics related to project and investment plan development.

The draft evaluation results will be shared in October. At this time, we will reschedule the Stakeholder Meetings and plan for an in-person/hybrid combined meeting to provide Task Force and CLC members with enough time to review materials and have informed discussions to continue building consensus.
